

Board vacancies HI The Hague

Do you like to party?

HI The Hague is looking for new board members! Do you study in The Hague, would you like to help grow The Hague as a student city and do you enjoy concepting and organizing events? Come join team HI The Hague!

We are looking for a secretary, two event managers and a promotion manager.

As a board member, you will work with the team on new HI The Hague events. From February forward, the team works towards the introduction week in August/September. And from September, preparations begin for the fall edition in November/December. You know how to organize a good student party and enjoy using your creativity for promotion and leading the events.

The HI The Hague team currently consists of a president and a social media secretary. The team receives coaching from a production manager and marketing communications consultant. Each team member has equal input into how we work together to create fun activities for students in The Hague. We concept, prepare, promote, produce, execute and evaluate – the whole shebang!

In addition, each team member has specific responsibilities:

- As secretary you make sure the team can work well together: you have the overview, provide structure, make sure appointments are kept and take minutes of the meetings.
- As event manager you prepare the events, make appointments with (external) partners, make production schedules and ensure that the events run smoothly.
- As promotion manager you create promotional material, write texts, manage the newsletter and coordinate promotional activities.

You will fit well in the team if:

- You are available 12 hours per week from February 2023*
- You are a team player with organizational skills
- Your English is good; meetings and communication are in English

 Your board membership lasts one year and you receive a payment in the form of a board scholarship (from second year onwards). More information about this? Ask at your college or university.*

Will you join us? Send an email telling about yourself to leon@hithehague.nl or call/app us at +31 6 17337413. More information first? We are looking forward to hearing from you!

About HI The Hague
