

We are Hiring Interns!

Position #1: Social Media Intern

The Studar Team is Looking for a new talent! Do you have an eye for social media?

As our new social media intern, you will be working on content creation, video editing, videography, and photography, that will be scheduled and planned by you on the Studar social media channels (Mainly TikTok and Instagram). We are starting to become a preeetty big deal on these channels and we need your help to keep it that way! Our TikTok page currently has around 11 million+ views!

You will be creating social media concepts that you feel fit with our audience, as well as initiating and maintaining social media collabs with Event and Location partners to grow followers and reach. Together with us, you will be able to boost our presence on social media and further build up the Studar community.

Sounds pretty intense, doesn't it? No worries, our previous interns will be showing you how we get things done around here! You will be able to develop your skills by getting workshops and masterclasses that are provided by Studar. Besides this, you will be able to build up your network in The Hague.
